

SNR Seminar Series - Fall 2004 (Wednesdays, 12:15PM, Room 225)

Sept 1	Heather Throop School of Natural Resources, UA	Small critters, big ecosystems: linking herbivory, nitrogen deposition and nutrient cycling
Sept 8	Johann Thorsson School of Natural Resources, UA	Iceland, story of a fragile ecosystem
Sept 15	David Maddison Department of Entomology, UA	(beetle evolution)
Sept 22	Chris Haas Independent Biologist Tucson, AZ	Ecology of white-nosed coatis
Sept 29	Phil Hedrick School of Life Sciences Arizona State University
Oct 6	Janice Przybyl Wildlife Monitoring Program Sky Island Alliance	Sky Island Alliance Field Programs: Applying conservation with the help of grassroots naturalists
Oct 13	Peter Reinthal Department of Ecology and Evolutionary Biology, UA
Oct 20	Karen Krebbs (tentative) AZ-Sonora Desert Museum	(bat ecology)
Oct 27	Brad McRae Department of Biological Sciences Northern Arizona University	(mt lion population genetics)
Nov 3	Paul Beier School of Forestry Northern Arizona University	The missing linkages projects – maintaining and restoring landscape connectivity in the southwest
Nov 10	Don Swann Wildlife Biologist Saguaro National Park
Nov 17	Carla Hurt School of Life Sciences Arizona State University	(springsnail population genetics)
Nov 24	THANKSGIVING BREAK
Dec 1	Matt Kaplan (tentative) Department of Ecology and Evolutionary Biology, UA	(lizard population genetics)
Dec 8	Kim McReary (tentative) African Wild Dog Conservancy	Community-based wild dog conservation in southeastern Kenya

