

These maps show electron density for the Pro90 loop in each of the 16 asymmetric units of the six crystal structures. The maps were calculated following multiple cycles of refinement with residues of the loop deleted from the model. Contour levels are shown in the range 1.9-3.0 \times RMSD depending upon the appearance at each asymmetric unit.

