

Introduction - Problem

- Healthcare-associated infections (HAIs) affect 2M patients per year in the U.S.
- Failure to wash is the leading preventable cause of HAIs
- Yet hand washing rates remain low: average  $\sim 50\%$ <sup>4,5,6</sup> (measurement subject to error)
- And pathogens can persist on objects in the environment