

Impacts of the First Crossing of Greenland

- * Strategy – Trek westward – not eastward!
- * No path of retreat! Forward = Fram
- * Nansen learned how to explore polar regions – Inuits shared vital experiences – Nansen wrote about anthropology of Inuits
- * Men pulled sledges – no dogs though desired
- * Bolstered confidence to reach poles and Norwegian pride/nationality
- * Popularized recreational skiing/ski equip.
- * Brought home sledge dog, Kvik
- * Book a big international success/very positive writing, not complaining about conditions – monies provided living/research funds
- * Interestingly, Nansen said he had trouble writing – despite the fact that he wrote several very long, readable, and highly acclaimed books!
