

Nansen with Raold Amundsen (Norway) in 1926 after Amundsen led 1st expedition to reach the South Pole using Fram (preceded Scott and Shackleton of GB).

Nansen and Amundsen at an open air meeting arranged by the Fædrelandslaget at the Akershus Castle in Oslo on 16 July 1926 – Amundsen's birthday. On the extreme left, partly obscured by Nansen, stands the chairman of the Fædrelandslaget, Joakim Lemkuhl. Photo: Cappelen's Billedarchiv.

Nansen co-founded an anti-socialist organization. Here he was speaking against Communism in 1928 before his death in 1930.

Nansen as national politician, delivering a speech in 1928 at an open air meeting as part of a campaign to stem the advance of communism. Photo: H. Aschehoug & Co.