

Tsunami “Harbor wave” in Japanese.
Colloquially called a “Tidal wave.”

A tsunami is a special ocean surface wave caused by a sudden large-scale disturbance resulting in the vertical displacement (up or down) of the ocean surface.

Wave is called a ‘solitary wave.’ Like a pulsed wave that travels with little loss of energy (principle used in fiber optic communications).